

Community Haven Receives Donations From Sarasota County Real Estate Agency & Title Company

Community Haven for Adults and Children with Disabilities, a local non-profit service provider receives donations from Riddell Law Group and Generous Property.

Sarasota, Jan 14, 2012 -- As a result of a recently closed real estate transaction, Barbara Thompson of Riddell Law Group and Troy Sacco of Generous Property, were able to present Marla Doss of Community Haven with a donation on behalf of their client.

"We really appreciate the support of local businesses like Riddell Law Group and Generous Property. Every donation helps us to advance our mission to meet the goals and needs of children, teens and adults with disabilities." said Ms. Doss. "We serve folks in three different counties, Sarasota, Manatee and Charlotte, over 700 individuals each and every day, helping to empower them to be as independent as possible." Marla added.

"These are special people providing a needed service to people and families with the support necessary to enable their clients to enhance the quality of their lives and a sense of fulfillment." Barbara Thompson said. "Riddell Law Group is happy to be able to help out."

"My wife Joyce and I had the grand tour of the 32 acre campus a few weeks ago with Marla and Susan Creech, the HR director. We were very impressed with the facility, the commitment of the staff and the positive impact they have with their clients." said Troy Sacco. "These are all special people here and really renew your faith in humanity. We knew then that we had to make our next contribution to Community Haven." He added.
